opposition to the proposed connection and stated a preference for a wall instead of a fence .

A representative from Weller Life requested to give a presentation regarding their project .

Gerald Gibbs, of 1930 N Bass Lane, expressed concern about the tax increase and opposed the connection to Tate Lane .

Davis Martin, representing Weller Life, was present and willing to answer questions .

The Mayor explained that emails have been received from various businesses and citizens and assured everyone that they have been distributed to all commissioners .

7. Commissioner Reports & Comments

Commissioner Giles spoke about the success of Ride Mt. Juliet Day and thanked the Police Department and Mt. Juliet Fire Department for their support. He also praised the spectacular drone show by Needhams and announced a ribbon-cutting event for a new sidewalk and bridge in Woodridge on June 22 at 2 PM.

Vice Mayor Trivett thanked everyone for attending and sharing their concerns. He addressed the budget, noting the challenges during COVID-19 and the decision not to increase taxes then due to widespread job losses and illness. He emphasized that the commission is striving to be good stewards of public funds and is committed to maintaining public safety, including keeping roads safe during snow events. He praised the Police Department, Mt. Juliet Fire Department, EMS, and staff for their excellent response times. He assured that the commission has been careful with every dollar and penny, and noted that City Manager Martin is reviewing costs thoroughly. He encouraged the public to continue reaching out to City Manager Martin with concerns.

Commissioner Hefner thanked everyone for attending and watching the meeting online. He noted that the commission has done a good job at slowing growth, emphasizing that growth is needed but must be managed responsibly. He stressed the importance of investing in infrastructure, EMS, and road improvements, reminding everyone that the Mt. Juliet Police Department does not come free and that its services come at a cost. He acknowledged that tax increases should have been considered earlier. Commissioner Hefner praised City Manager Martin and staff for their efforts in trimming the budget and emphasized the need to present a responsible budget.

Commissioner Milele addressed some comments made during citizens' comments, clarifying that Channel 5 reported inaccurately. She stated that the phrase "we cannot afford this" referred to competition pools, not the full recreation center. She noted that pickleball and basketball courts are included, but the rec center has not yet broken ground. She clarified that the recreation center is funded through the hotel-motel tax, not the general fund. Commissioner Milele expressed appreciation for the positions discussed and indicated she will motion to reinstate them. Regarding the budget, she highlighted that the Mt. Juliet Fire Department's budget has increased every year and that EMS has also been added, together accounting for nearly half of the budget. She stated that sales tax revenue is no longer sufficient to sustain the city and expressed her belief that cutting COLA and positions to fund the fire department and EMS is not the right approach.

The Mayor offered condolences to Commissioner Hefner and thanked Commissioner Milele for correcting news statements. He acknowledged differing views on the budget but emphasized the importance of cutting expenses before considering a tax increase. He noted that the tight budget forces careful scrutiny of expenditures. The Mayor highlighted that the city has the lowest crime rate in the state and is ranked fourth best overall. He expressed strong support for emergency services and stated that even if the property tax increase is approved, the city will still have the lowest tax rate in the county.

8. City Manager's Report

City Manager Kenny Martin thanked everyone for attending and expressed appreciation for the passion within the community. He shared that Marty Potts' wife passed away last week and thanked staff for their support during the funeral. He expressed continued prayers for those facing challenges behind closed doors and conveyed his appreciation for all the feedback received.
